

Vasota Jungle Trek With camping on 21-22 January 2024

Don't miss out the opportunity to participate in the Vasota Jungle Trek, which is a favorite among trekking enthusiasts and offers a stunning view every time. For the ideal weekend excursion, embark on a magnificent one-day hike to this magnificent fort located in Satara village, Maharashtra.

The Vasota Jungle hike begins with a journey from Pune and ends with a camping excursion at Bamnoli village, where the hike commences in the early hours of the morning. Take a boat transport to the trek's starting point, where you will pass through a well-known tiger reserve and thick jungle.

Upon ascending the Vasota Jungle Trek, you will be astounded to catch a view of the fort situated between numerous mountains and forested slopes. Food and transportation from Pune to the location and back are included in the package.
