

WORKSHOP ON 'BASIC ELEMENTS AND BASIC PRINCIPLES OF DESIGN'
FOR FIRST YEAR B. ARCH

Sanjay Ghodawat University, School of Architecture, Atigre conducted a one day workshop on 'Spaces in Architecture', on 29/09/2018. The workshop was conducted for First Year B. Arch. The workshop was conducted by Prof. Bal Shankar Gargade. He is a professor at Indira College of Architecture, Wakad, Pune.

The workshop commenced by a brief introduction of the guest Prof. Bal Shankar Gargade by Ar. Anil Joshi. His Major interest is to generate creativity amongst the students.

He has also won the following prestigious awards:

- 1) First Prize winner in Interior Designing Competition organized by Fedders Lloyds Company – 1985.
- 2) First Prize winner in Interior Designing Competition endorsed by IFI – 1988 (International Federation of Interior Designers – Amsterdam, Netherland).

Prof. Bal Shankar Gargade addressing the students

AIM: The workshop was conducted with the aim to understand the articulation of spaces keeping in mind the attributes of spaces.

OBJECTIVES: Students should understand positive and negative spaces and its implementation in Architectural Design in future.

Prof. Anil Joshi interacting with student

The topics covered in the one day workshop are as follows:

- 1) Relation of space and built form.
- 2) Experience of an individual with respect to spaces.
- 3) Sensitivity towards spaces, colors, textures, etc.
- 4) Functional aspects in design.
- 5) Different types of Architectural spaces.
- 6) Importance of positive and negative spaces in design.
- 7) Relation between design and color.

He gave a very informative presentation on the above topics and was followed by model making exercise wherein individual students were supposed to make a composition or an interesting pattern from the given material.

Presentation Images

The students were acquainted with the relationship and sensitivity towards the importance of spaces (positive and negative) in design.

Models made by students

Prof. Anil Joshi and Bal Shankar Gargade interacting with students