

CASE STUDY REPORT OF ICE CREAM PARLOUR

Place of Visit: Rajarampuri, 6th Lane

Date of Visit: 25th Nov 2019

Subject: Architectural Design I

Topic: Ice-cream Parlour

Description of Activities:

Following are the points studied during the visit –

The visit was carried out to identify the different requirements of a small scale ice-cream parlour.

Here they studied about different spaces, activities and circulation of the same.

Figure 1- Ice-cream parlour

Figure 1- Ice-cream parlour interior view

The students were divided into groups and each group was asked to do sketches and take photographs individually. They were also asked to take the measurement of the furniture along with the spaces to understand anthropometry. The segregation of space and the details according to the space was also discussed.

Figure 3- students taking measurements and studying anthropometry of interior spaces.

After the visit the students were able to understand the positive and negative spaces created because of activities and circulation. The students get acquainted with the area required for different activities of ice-cream parlour. They were able to calculate the area required for the given problem.