

Site Visit Report for Ice Cream Parlour

Place of Visit: R. K. Nagar

Date of Visit: 25th Nov 2019

Subject: Architectural Design I

Topic: Proposed Site for Ice-cream Parlour

Description of Activities:

Following are the points studied during the visit –

The visit was carried out to study the different parameters of the proposed site for a small scale ice-cream parlour.

Here they studied the size, shape and width of the accesses and north.

Figure 1- Site and Adjacent Building

Figure 2- Access Road Site

The students were divided into groups and each group was asked to do sketches and take measurements and photographs individually. They were also asked to take the measurement of the access roads and set-backs of adjacent buildings. The segregation of space and the details according to the space was also discussed.

Figure 3- Proposed site

After the visit the students were able to understand the positive and negative spaces created because of activities and circulation. The students get acquainted with the area required for different activities of ice-cream parlour. They were able to calculate the area required for the given problem.