

Report on Anti-Ragging Awareness Session

As per the recommendations made by Hon'ble Supreme Court, U.G.C and Govn. of India, a session on "Curbing the Menace of Ragging" for students of First year, School of Technology & School of Science was held on 12th of Feb. 2020 at Sanjay Ghodawat University. The resource person for the session was Advocate P. H. Deshpande, Standing Counsel, Central Govt. Kolhapur. Talking with students he explained various laws, rules and regulations enforced by Supreme Court, U.G.C & State government to curb ragging in the educational institutes. He told students ragging is an heinous crime & there is stringent action prescribed by Supreme Court, U.G.C & State government. The students were also briefed by Dr. N. K. Patil, Registrar SGU, in which he explained various measures taken at SGU to prevent ragging. He also asked students to keep campus of SGU ragging free. A total 120 students as well as first year staff attended the session.

(a) Advocate P. H. Deshpande giving talk

(b) Dr. N. K. Patil, briefing the students

(a)

(b)

Some of the pictures taken during the session